SURGE IN SOLO DINING

"We are facing a loneliness epidemic. People are starving for connection, but existing tools create friction."

- Group Chats are chaotic
- Meetup is too broad
- Dating apps aren't for friends

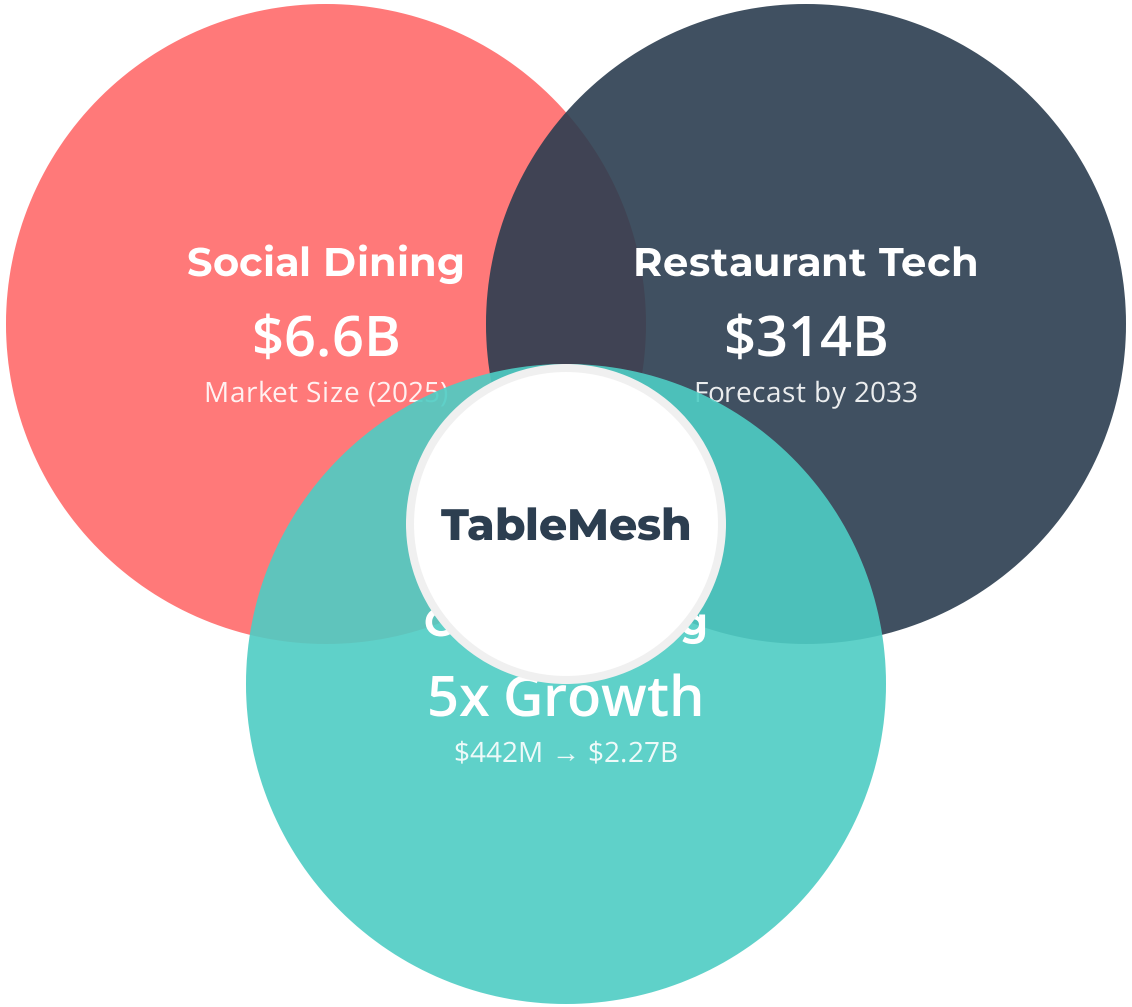
Safety First

Verified profiles, wave system for mutual interest, and robust blocking tools.

A $6.6 Billion Market Opportunity



High-Value Diners

Group diners spend 2-3x more than solo diners. TableMesh unlocks this high-value segment for restaurants.

Growing Demand

Group dining reservations are up 11% YoY. 36% of Americans explicitly want more group dining options.

The "Why Now"

Post-pandemic, the "Loneliness Epidemic" is driving a massive shift back to real-world connection over digital interaction.
